Our goal is to deliver premium quality specialty coffees to people around us, and all over the world, who enjoy brewing a nice cup of coffee in their everyday life, whether at home, at the office, or even outdoors. From auction-grade coffee beans to unique or rare varietals to coffee beans that we tasted and loved, we strive to provide a variety of coffees and options to meet different needs. We continue to try new samples and work with farms and importers to ensure we are sourcing the highest quality green beans. Also, we micro-batch roast our coffee beans on demand, so our product is delivered fresh to our customers. We hope that drinking coffee becomes a luxury experience for you and an experience that enhances every facet of your life!"

“Born to an Italian immigrant family, Executive Chef Pat Pascarella has a love for authentic Neopolitan cuisine that runs as deeply as his roots. He grew up savoring the traditional Italian cooking of his mother and grandmother, and it wasn't long before he found himself training under James Beard Award-winning chefs and helming his own kitchens throughout Connecticut, New York, and Atlanta, Georgia.

Grana, Chef Pat's latest culinary endeavor, is directly inspired by the robust southern Italian cooking of his family's matriarchs. It is in their honor that our menu is kept simple and classics are left untouched.”

“Matthew Forsee began as a Table & Main bartender in 2013, bringing over 35 years of restaurant experience, opening corporate restaurants across the country. Connecting with guests through an innate sense of hospitality, Matt became a key employee, then Assistant Manager, and ultimately General Manager in 2019. During the COVID pandemic, Matt led our Table & Aid efforts that distributed just under 10,000 free meals to our community's newly food-insecure. If you've ever brought your dog to Table & Main, chances are Matt offered them chicken and free pets. He enjoys exploring new wines and whiskeys, and he's responsible for the T&M playlist. Be forewarned: If he slyly asks whether you like the song currently playing...and you've never heard it before...just go ahead and say yes. It's most likely his old band.

“Despite supporting a magnetic restaurant culture and dynamic arts environment, Roswell was once long without a craft brewery. Our growing city is now a burgeoning craft beer haven in the north metro area of a state with nearly fifty. At Gate City Brewing, we take immense pride in having, shall we say, broken the seal. Thank you for your interest in our journey; it wouldn't be the same without you.”

The name Deep Roots symbolizes two things that are extremely important to us...family and quality. It represents vines with roots that grow deep into the soil—struggling to reach far and wide for nutrients, ultimately yielding the finest fruit. In addition to our dedication to delivering quality products and experiences, we are grounded in the strong family ties that brought us back home to Georgia.

In 2018, Dana opened Deep Roots Wine Market & Tasting Room in Roswell, and in 2023, she opened Deep Roots Wine + Kitchen in Downtown Woodstock!”
